PREFACE

2016 3rd International Conference on Chemical and Biological Sciences has been successfully held in Amsterdam, Netherlands during March 23-25, 2016. ICCBS 2016 was organized by CBEES, and the objective of the conference is to provide a forum for the discussion of new developments, recent progress, and innovations in the chemical and biological sciences. It addresses all aspects of the related fields. The emphasis is on current and future challenges in research and development in both academia and industry. It emphasizes long-term, fundamental research aimed at discovering novel phenomena, processes, and tools.

The proceedings present a selection of 33 papers submitted to the conference from universities, research institutes and industries. All of the papers were subjected to peer-review by conference committee members and international reviewers. The papers selected for publishing in the proceedings depended on their quality and their relevancy to the conference. The proceedings tend to present to the readers the recent advances in the field of chemical and biological sciences and various related areas, including materials science and application, environment and ecology, applied chemistry, renewable energy and energy engineering

We are grateful to all the authors for submissions to this conference and for sharing their research fruits and valuable experiences they've acquired. And we would like to express our special thanks to the conference chair, Prof. Ioana Demetrescu and the program chair, Prof. Keimei OH.

Finally, we are very delighted to welcome you to ICCBS next year.
