Preface

This proceeding book consists of 18 papers from ‘The 2nd International Conference on Composite Material Polymer Science and Engineering (CMPSE)’, which was held on September 21st and 22nd, 2018 in Osaka, Japan. This conference focused on recent scientific research and engineering technology in the field of composite materials, polymer science and engineering. The main topics of the 2nd CMPSE were ‘Mechanical properties of corrosion, damage analysis, strength and wear’, ‘Thermal properties of thermal stability and thermo-plasticity’ and ‘Product manufacturing of recycle, material process and machining. All papers were accepted through a peer-review process by the editorial committee and international reviewers, and were categorized into 3 chapters.

On behalf of the organizing committee, the editor would like to acknowledge the technical comments from the reviewers and thank all of the authors for their contributions to this proceeding book. And thanks are expressed to Koshiro Mizobe from the University of Toyama, who assigned the conference secretary thorough the planning of the conference, and Kazuaki Nakane from Osaka University and Hitonobu Koike from Miyazaki University for their editorial work.

Unfortunately, typhoon Jebi (No. 21) hit Osaka area and destroyed the main bridge between Kansai floating airport and the main land. While many researchers and professors canceled the conference, over 30 people attended. On behalf of the committee, the editor would appreciate their support of the conference.
